

2022 ILEETA Conference Certification and Live Fire Course Registration Links

Certification and live fire courses have a limited number of attendees and therefore require advance registration. Instructors are permitted to charge a fee to cover the cost of certification and materials for their courses. Registration is first come – first served. Course descriptions and instructor bios can also be found on the conference site map web page.

For these courses please email the instructor at the email address indicated and provide them the name of the course you wish to register for, your name and agency.
